PRESS RELEASE

Council elections called for 4 May 2023

Elections for District, Town and Parish Councils in Mid Sussex have been called and will take place on Thursday 4 May 2023.

The elections will be the first to take place since the Government introduced the requirement to provide photographic identification when voting at the polling station. Voters can find a full list of acceptable types of Voter ID on the council website at www.midsussex.gov.uk/elections-voting/bring-photo-id-to-vote/website

The nomination period for all candidates started on Tuesday 21 March and closes at 4pm on Tuesday 4 April. Nomination forms for each election type are available from Mid Sussex District Council's Electoral Services team or online at www.midsussex.gov.uk/elections.

To assist anyone who is considering standing for election, guidance on becoming a candidate and the various election procedures is available on the Electoral Commission website at www.electoralcommission.org.uk.

The deadline to apply for a postal vote is 5pm on Tuesday 18 April and anyone who wishes to appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf must do so by 5pm on Tuesday 25 April.

Residents who have recently moved to a new home and have not yet completed a voter registration application, should apply online at www.gov.uk/register-to-vote or contact the Electoral Services team as soon as possible because the registration deadline is on Monday 17 April 2023.
